Re: Appeal to BZA Regarding 10112 Meadowknoll Drive, Loveland, OH 45140

Dear Members of the Board:

This firm represents Yiwei Cheng and Jarrod Tucker (the "Owners") with regard to the determination made by the Symmestownship Office of the Zoning Inspector on June 27, 2022 (the "Decision"), memorialized in the attached Exhibit A, as applied to the property located at 10112 Meadowknoll Drive, Loveland, Ohio 45140 (the "Property"). Please allow this correspondence to support the Owners' Appeal (the "Appeal") under the Zoning Resolution (the "Resolution") of the June 27, 2022 Decision pursuant to Sec. 183 of the Resolution.

I. STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF APPEAL

A. Statement of Facts

This Appeal challenges the determination of the Zoning Inspector that a conditional use permit is required for the use of "short-term rental" at the Property. The Owners purchased the Property in October 2020, and began using the Property as a rental property with Airbnb and VRBO shortly thereafter. Documentation relating to this use is attached as Exhibit B. As the attached documentation reflects, the Property was offered by the Owners, for a fee, for a term of less than thirty (30) days at all relevant times since the time when the Owners purchased the Property.

RECEIVED

JUL 15 2022

Effective June 19, 2022, pursuant to Symmes Township Resolution G2022-52, the Township implemented changes to the Resolution to both define a short-term rental, and require that it become a conditional use in the Township. Under Sec. 31.3-192(A), a “short-term rental” is now defined as follows:

A dwelling unit or portion thereof, which is offered or provided to a guest by a short-term rental owner or operator for a fee for a term of less than thirty (30) days.

See Resolution at § 31.3-192(A). Prior to the implementation of Res. 62022-52 on June 19, 2022, the use of “short-term rental” was neither defined nor restricted in any way under the Resolution.

B. Justification for the Appeal

The Owners respectfully request that this Board reverse the decision of the Zoning Inspector, and find that the use of the Property is a legitimate, nonconforming use pursuant to Sec. 151 et seq. of the Resolution. The Resolution provides as follows:

The lawful use of any dwelling, building or structure and of any land or premises as existing and lawful at the time of enactment of this Resolution or amendment thereto, may be continued although such use does not conform with the provisions of this Resolution or Amendment.

(Resolution at § 151). Further, “[w]henver the use of any dwelling building or structure and of any land or premises becomes nonconforming through an Amendment of this Resolution or Maps, such use may be continued[.]” (Id. at § 152). This nonconforming use may be continued so long as it is not voluntarily discontinued for two (2) years or more, in which case “any future use thereof shall be in conformity with the provisions of [the] Resolution.” (Id. at § 153).

In this respect, the Resolution follows the law of the State of Ohio, which provides that a nonconforming use means a use that “was lawful prior to the enactment of a zoning ordinance and which use may be continued after the effective date of the ordinance even though it does not comply with the applicable use restrictions.” City of Marietta v. Bd. of Trs. for Wash. Cty. Woman’s Home, 2020-Ohio-5144, ¶ 65 (4th Dist.).

Furthermore, “[w]here a zoning resolution provides that an existing and nonconforming use may be continued but contains no provision as to a permit therefor, it is not necessary as a condition precedent to such continuance to secure from the zoning authorities such a permit.” Verbillion v. Enon Sand & Gravel, LLC, 2021-Ohio-3850, ¶ 121 (2d Dist.). “In other words, where a use exists at the time a zoning resolution or ordinance takes effect, which make such use nonconforming and does not provide for an application to continue such use, such use may be continued under the terms of the ordinance or resolution, and a permit to continue such nonconforming use is not required.” (Id.). Pursuant to Article XV of the Resolution, no permit is required to continue a lawful nonconforming use. (See Article XV, attached as Exhibit C).

Here, there is no question that the Property was being used in the manner now defined as a "short-term rental" prior to the effective date of Symmes Township Resolution G2022-52. Since 2020, the Property has rented as a dwelling unit and offered to guests by the Owners for a fee for a term of less than thirty (30) days. This is reflected in the documentation attached as Exhibit B, and testimony will be presented regarding this fact at the hearing of this matter. This use has been continuous, and has not been abandoned under Ohio law or the Resolution.

Further, there is no requirement under the Resolution that the Owners apply for a permit to continue their legitimate, nonconforming use. (See Resolution at Article XV). Accordingly, the Owners are permitted to continue using the Property, as of right, under both the Resolution and the law of the State of Ohio.

***

The Owners seek the intervention of this Board so that they may continue to lawfully use their Property. For the reasons stated above, Yiwei Cheng and Jarrod Tucker respectfully request that the Board of Zoning Appeals reverse the Decision of the Zoning Inspector. Thank you for your consideration of this matter and we look forward to presenting to you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

KEATING MUETHING & KLEKAMP PLL

Great stay during Thanksgiving with our family. Everyone had a great time and the open concept kitchen/dining/living was perfect for our stay.

November 2021

We met family from Tennessee and stayed the weekend, the house is absolutely beautiful, the neighborhood is amazing and if you need a store literally 5 minutes to Meijer!. I had to contact Yiwei about the TV and she answered right away (easy fix). Definitely looking forward to staying again. Pictures were exactly what you see and you won't be disappointed.

October 2021

Yiwei's communication is top notch! The house is super clean and well appointed with things like a Keurig, plenty of towels, body wash/shampoo etc. This all made it very easy to get settled in quickly. While the trundle bed in the open office area may be less than ideal for anything other than kids (kudos to her as she does call this out in the description) the finished basement is a great space to set up an air mattress. We would definitely stay again when we're in Cincinnati.

ARTICLE XV
NON-CONFORMING USES

- Sec. 151           The lawful use of any dwelling, building or structure and of any land or premises as existing and lawful at the time of enactment of this Resolution or amendment thereto, may be continued although such use does not conform with the provisions of this Resolution or Amendment. If no structural alterations are made, a non-conforming use of a building may be changed to another non-conforming use of the same or of a more restricted classification. Whenever a non-conforming use has been changed to a more restricted use or to a conforming use, such use shall not thereafter be changed to a less restricted use.
- Sec. 152           Whenever the use of any dwelling building or structure and of any land or premises becomes non-conforming through an Amendment of this Resolution or Maps, such use may be continued and, if no structural alterations are made, it may be changed to another non-conforming use of the same or of a more restricted classification.
- Sec. 153           In the event that a non-conforming use of any dwelling, building or structure and of any land or premises is voluntarily discontinued for two (2) years or more, any future use thereof shall be in conformity with the provisions of this Resolution.
- Sec. 154           Except as hereinafter provided in Article XVIII, no existing building or premises devoted to a use not permitted by this Resolution in the District in which such building or premises is located, except when required to do so by law or order, shall be enlarged, extended, reconstructed, or structurally altered, unless the use thereof is changed to a use permitted in the District in which such building or premises is located.
- Sec. 155           When a building, the use of which does not conform to the provisions of this Resolution, is damaged by fire, explosion, Act of God, or the public enemy, to the extent of more than sixty percent (60%) of its reproduction value, it shall not be restored, unless the restoration of such use shall have been authorized by the Board in the manner provided in Article XVIII. (STT Res. Z9705 eff. Dec. 4, 1997)
- Sec. 156           Nothing in this Resolution shall be interpreted as authorization for or approval of the continuance of the use of any activity, land, building or premises in violation of zoning regulations in effect at the time such use was begun.
